

YANNICK M. SCHINDLER

London School of Economics and Political Science
Centre for Macroeconomics
32 Lincoln's Inn Fields
London WC2A 3PH, UK

E-mail: y.schindler@lse.ac.uk
Web: www.yannickschindler.com
Citizenship: German, UK (settled status)

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Primary: macroeconomics

Secondary: technological change, economics of health and longevity

EDUCATION

2020-2025	PhD Economics, London School of Economics [with two parental leaves of absence]
2018-2020	MRes Economics, London School of Economics (Distinction)
2015-2016	MSc Economics, University College London (Distinction)
2008-2012	BA Economics, Colorado College (Distinction)

EXPERIENCE

2025	Guest Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Oxford
2024-	Senior Research Economist, Ellison Institute of Technology Oxford
2023-2025	Research Fellow, Department of Economics, London Business School
2023-2025	Research Fellow, Center on Longevity, Stanford University
2022-	Co-Founder and Lead Researcher, Applied Economics with AI Lab at LSE/CEP
2022-2023	Teaching Fellow, Department of Economics, London School of Economics
2022-2023	Macroeconomic Consultant, Weiss Asset Management
2017-2018	Senior Research Fellow, Department of Economics, Princeton University
2016-2017	Pre-Doctoral Researcher, Department of Economics, London School of Economics
2013-2015	Research Analyst, Monetary and Financial Statistics, European Central Bank

RESEARCH

Publications

The Macroeconomic Impact of Chronic Illness in the United Kingdom, Journal of the Economics of Ageing, 2025 (with Andrew Scott)

Working papers

“Bad Bank, Bad Luck? Evidence from 1 Million Firm-Lender Relationships” (with Peter Lambert)

Work in progress

“The UK Mortality Gradient: Evidence from Three Billion Tax Records Linked to Census and Death Registrations”

“From Biology to Wages: Lifecycle Comparative Advantage in Task Space”

“Machinery of Progress: Charting the Capabilities of Capital Equipment, 1998-2023” (with Peter Lambert)

“Crowding Out Prevention: How Income Uncertainty Shapes Health Investment”

Policy writing

Prosperity Through Health: The Macroeconomic Case for Investing in Preventative Health Care in the UK, 2024, (with Sir John Bell, Tamsin Berry, John Deanfield, Ines Hassan, Roshni Joshi, and Andrew Scott)

SELECT PROJECTS

- | | |
|------|--|
| 2025 | Boston Consulting Group
Designed core national accounts methodologies for a national statistics agency, including developing a national balance sheet framework and capital expenditure survey. |
| 2024 | Tony Blair Institute
Macro-health policy paper quantifying the GDP, employment, and fiscal impacts of preventative health care in the UK. |
| 2023 | Weiss Asset Management
Designed and implemented DSGE forecasting models to forecast US inflation, output, and employment. |

PRESENTATIONS

Including scheduled & co-author presentations

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| 2025 | Stockholm School of Economics, FDIC, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, BSE Summer Forum, LBS Transatlantic Doctoral Conference, University of Oregon Summer Finance, EEA Congress, ROCKWOOL Foundation Berlin, Paris December Finance Meeting, Fed/FDIC Community Banking Conference, Downing Street Data Science Unit |
| 2023-2024 | LSE (Management), London Business School (Economics), Maastricht University (Economics), ESRC/Google DeepMind conference, Stanford University Center on Longevity, Stanford University Economics Work in Progress seminar, HM Treasury, LSE Centre for Macroeconomics (CfM) Work in Progress seminar, LSE Programme on Innovation and Diffusion (POID) seminar, LBS Health and the UK Macroeconomy workshop (as organizer), Future of Britain Conference, Competition Markets Authority, LSE Centre for Macroeconomics (CfM) Work in Progress seminar, UCL IO workshop. |

HONORS, GRANTS, AND SCHOLARSHIPS

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 2021 & 2022 | Teaching Bonus Award, London School of Economics |
| 2022 | Teaching Excellence Award, London School of Economics |
| 2018 | Finalist, Haniel scholarship, German Academic Scholarship Foundation |
| 2016 | Best MSc Dissertation Prize, University College London |